

'Good Life' and Development: Exploring the nexus between two entangled concepts in contemporary India and beyond

Workshop organized by Uwe Skoda and Jyotirmaya Tripathy

28th of March: Building 1467-616 and via Zoom: <https://aarhusuniversity.zoom.us/j/65001341299>

9am CET/Danish Time / 12.30 IST/Indian Time Inaugural

9.30-11am CET / 1-2.30pm IST: Session 1: Foundations

Sudarsan Padmanabhan: Indian Constitution and Good life

Niels Brimnes: 'To preach health to the underfed is nothing but hypocrisy'. The discourse on health and development in early independent India

11.30-12.15noon CET / 3-3.45pm IST: Session 2: Covid 19 and its shadows

Lidia Guzy: A Universal Wellbeing for All – Utopia or Dystopia in its making?

1.30-3pm CET / 5-6.30pm IST: Session 3: Covid 19 and its shadows (cont.)

Haripriya Narasimhan, Mahati Chittem and Pooja Purang: For that fine balance: Women reimagining work, life and self during a pandemic

Sona Prabhakaran: Precarity and Dispossession during Corona Times

29th of March: Building 1467-616 and via Zoom <https://aarhusuniversity.zoom.us/j/66302761718>

9.00-10.30am CET / 12.30-2pm IST: Session 4: Religion and well-being

Aniket Nandan: Living the 'good-life' and measuring 'development': Assessing the role of a religious organisation as a facilitator of development and in cultivating notions of good-life.

Sarbani Banerjee: Sadhguru, Humour, and Good Life

11-12.30pm CET / 2.30-4pm IST: Session 5: Institutions

Jyotirmaya Tripathy: IITs as Good Life

James Cuffe: Ascendant China and reimagining The Good Life on the world stage

1.30-3.30pm CET / 5-7pm IST: Session 6: Consumption

Kartikeya Satish Acharya: Making: A Good Life

Kaamyra Sharma: From 'eco-friendly' to 'eco-habitus': Sustainable Consumption and Class in Urban India

Rashmi Pramanik/Uwe Skoda: Dustbin "beauties": promoting cleanliness, development and a "good life"