

In Memoriam James C. Scott (2.12.1936 – 19.7.2024)

15th November, 14.00-17.00
Room M1, Studenterhuset
Fredrik Nielsens Vej 2-4, Aarhus 8000 C

Reflections on how the thought of James C. Scott has shaped research in history, sociology and political anthropology.

Introductory remarks by Richard Cole (AU, History)

"James C. Scott's notion of 'high modernism' and the study of disease control in post-colonial India – some reflections" Prof. Niels Brimnes (AU, History)

"James C. Scott's contribution to the study of power and resistance" Dr. Tom Høctor (University of Bedfordshire)

"Two cheers for James C. Scott. The phenomenological imperative deriving from infrapolitics and moral economy" Prof. Jeremy Morris (AU, Global Studies)

"The scholarship and academic activism of James C. Scott: reflections on Scott and his critics" Dr. Casper Andersen (AU, History of Ideas)

Introductory remarks: 14.15-14.20

Speakers: 14.20-15.20

Break – cake and charging of glasses: 15.20-15.35

Discussion between speakers: 15.35-16.35

Refreshments: 16.35-17.00

Generously supported by the Research Programme in History

AARHUS UNIVERSITY

