

FirstMillennium+ Seminar

Movements of People and Ideas in the First Millennium AD

Monday 24 April 2017

10-16

Aarhus University, Studenternes Hus, Mødelokale 1

10-12

Keynote lecture

Garth Fowden

Sultan Qaboos Professor of Abrahamic Faiths, University of Cambridge

“Later First Millennium Knowledge Circuits: The Role of Alexandria”

Response from Søren Sindberg Jensen, SDU.

12-13

Lunch

13-16

Workshop: Movements of People and Ideas in the First Millennium AD

Chaired by Jakob Engberg and Troels Myrup Kristensen

Anna Usacheva: Textual criticism of Homeric scholarship and Origen’s Biblical studies (20 minutes)

Birte Poulsen: Travelling Images in Late Antiquity (10 minutes)

Kasper Bro Larsen: Travelling Tales: The Morphology of the Hospitality Scene in Ancient Literature (20 minutes)

Brent Nongbri: Some Questions on the Development of the Technology of the Codex (20 minutes)

Jakob Engberg: Cyprian’s network in exile (10 minutes)

Troels Myrup Kristensen: First Millennium Pilgrimage (10 minutes)

Organized in collaboration between the research programmes in Theology, History and Classical Studies.

FirstMillennium+

Organizers: Jakob Engberg and Troels Myrup Kristensen

FORMAT(S)

There are two formats for contributions: 1) presentations of 20 minutes followed by 10 minutes for questions, or 2) presentations of 10 minutes followed by five minutes for questions.

REGISTRATION

Please sign up with Troels: tmk@cas.au.dk before 15 April.

AARHUS UNIVERSITY