

Heritage layers in landscapes

Intersections between Heritage studies, Africa studies and Urban studies

Research workshop, February 17 2015 , 2-5 pm.
The Nobel Park, 1485/414

Round of presentation of research agendas, topics and interests in the group

Presentations:

Christian Ernst, PhD student, University of Cape Town: Ruins of Cape Town's District Six. – on issues of heritage management, memories of forced removals and post-apartheid utopias including a visual essay which I'm developing with a photographer.

Morten Nielsen, Associate Professor, AU: Enclave Cities in sub-Saharan Africa: Debris from Maputo's urban future.

Casper Andersen, Assistant Professor, AU: Techno-politics and heritage in East Africa – some reflections on current and future research agendas.

Arranged by the research programme Materials, Culture and Heritage &
the section Sustainable Heritage Management
Britta Timm Knudsen