

Tracking Cultural Changes 1.0 ---- The beginning of the Iron Age

Thursday, November 12 2015

14.00 to 16.30

Venue: 4206-125, AU, Moesgård

Organiser: Mette Løvschal (lovschal@cas.au.dk)

Program

- 14.00 Welcome by Mette Løvschal & Helle Vandkilde
- 14.10 Peter Skoglund, Institutionen för historiska studier, University of Gothenborg:
Society and landscape around 800 BC – a preliminary outline
- 14.40 Mads Runge, Odense Bys Museer: New takes on landscape use and settlement organisation in LBA-EIA
- 15.05 Coffee and cake
- 15.25 Bent Vad Odgaard, Geoscience, Aarhus University: Macro-scale landscape transformations in Denmark during the 1st millennium BC
- 15.50 Tine Lorange, Varde Museum: Årre - changes in burial traditions and concepts of the self in LBA-EIA (preliminary title)
- 16.15 Final discussion
- 16.30 - Wine and snacks in the old student basement

Participation is free and all are very welcome!

* This afternoon seminar is the first in a row of multidisciplinary seminars that attempt to explore new methodological and theoretical paths and causal explanations in long-term cultural changes.