

Conference schedule

Exploring the Grey Zones: Governance, Conflict and (In)Security in Eastern Europe

Organizers: Ida Harboe og Martin Demant Frederiksen

Friday, November 1st 2013

8.30-9.30 am Registration. Venue: Room 2 (mødelokale 2), Building 1420, Studenternes Hus, Frederik Nielsens Vej, 8000 Aarhus C.

9.30-9.45 Introduction to the conference. Martin Demant Frederiksen and Ida Harboe, Aarhus University

Session 1: Migration, Disconnection and Entrepreneurship

Chair: Peter Bugge, Aarhus University

9.45-10.30 Key Note: Gaps between the Knots: Toward a Critique of total Interconnection. Sarah Green, Helsinki University

10.30-11.00 Migration Grey Zones in the Post-Soviet Space. Andrei Korobkov, Middle Tennessee State University

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-12.00 Inside the Grey Zones of Roma Migrations. The Social Art of Navigation, Power and Complicity among Slovakian Roma. Jan Grill, Manchester University

12.00-12.30 Grey Zones of Entrepreneurship and Hybrid Patterns of Property in CEE and their Potential Longer Term Consequences: The Case of the Czech Republic. Marcel Tomasek, Charles University, Prague

12.30-13.30 Lunch Break

Session 2: Governance, Reforms and Rights

Chair: Michael Eilenberg, Aarhus University

13.30-14.00 The Relevance of Human Rights in Kosovo before and after Independence: A Critical Assessment. Branislav Radeljic, University of East London

14.00-14.30 The Two Sides of the Police Reform in Georgia. Lilli Di Puppo, Higher School of Economic, Moscow

14.30-15.00 The Racial State of Bosnia, Its Regime of Governmentality and Transnational Lives. Maja Halilovic-Pastuovic, University of Dublin

15.00- Coffee

18.00 Conference Dinner, location to be announced

Saturday, November 2nd

Session 3: Everyday Uncertainties

Chair: Ida Harboe, Aarhus University

- 9.30-10.15 Key note: Living in the Grey Zones: When Ambiguity and Uncertainty are the Ordinary. Frances Pine, Goldsmith University of London
- 10.15-10.45 Leaving the Land? Food Security, Poverty and Class in Rural Moldova. Jennifer Cash, Max Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle/Saale
- 10.45-11.15 Coffee break
- 11.15-11.45 Navigating to Survive: 'Veže' in the Governance of Life in a Bosnian Town. Čarna Brković, Manchester University
- 11.45-12.15 Invisible Connections: On Uncertainty and the (re)production of opaque Politics in the Republic of Georgia. Katrine Gotfredsen, University of Malmö
- 12.15-13.15 Lunch Break

Session 4: Borders and Ethnicity

Chair: Martin Demant, Aarhus University

- 13.15-13.45 Strategies of Belonging: Ethnicity and Citizenship in the Context of Social Uncertainty. Kristina Šliavaitė, Lithuanian Social Research Center
- 13.45-14.15 Good Neighbours and Bad Fences: Everyday Polish Trading Activities on the EU border with Belarus. Aimee Joyce, Goldsmith University of London
- 13.45-14.00 Coffee Break
- 14.00-15.00 Plenary Discussion: General themes and process of publication