

ETNOGRAFISK FILM – FORÅR 2014

Semesteret byder på to filmsessioner i København, hvor vi viser film og diskuterer, bl.a. hvordan indsigt i andre levemåder og repræsentationer heraf skabes gennem antropologiske metoder.

Tirsdag d. 25/2-2014. Kl. 14.00- 16.00.
Lokale D-174, IUP Emdrup Campus

De to film har fokus på socialisering, ritualer og hverdagsliv:

Juarke – Boys made men in Mboum

Society*. 2010. 52 min.

Af: Mohamadou Saliou

Cameroon,
The Mboum people have practiced male circumcision for decades. Until the middle of the last century, male circumcision was highly regarded as a period of initiation leading to a man's status.

Tiny Kathrina*, 25 min. 2005

Af Ivan Golovnev

Northwestern Siberia,
A small girl Katerina observes the outer world and understands it. She learns the voices of people, animals and other beings. Gradually she approaches the unknown and the unknown approaches her - not far from Katerina's nomad camp an oil rig appears.

Tirsdag d. 11/3-2014. Kl. 14.00- 16.00.
Lokale D-174, IUP Emdrup Campus

Denne eftermiddag tager vi til sydvest Kina for her at befinde os i en baggård og ser her hvordan livet leves. Vi skal bl.a. diskutere hvilken form for viden en film som denne giver. Ph. D. studerende Mei Qu & Jie Freya Gao deltager

Our Courtyard – Bai People of South West China*,

2006, 59 min. Filmmaker: Frode Storaas

This documentary opens the gate to the Yang ancestral courtyard and sheds light on the lives and emotions of the family as they look into a past (eviction and collectivization) and towards the post-Reform future for guidance on how to secure a home in which they and the future generations of Yangs can continue to prosper.

Alle interesserede er velkomne.
