

International Seminar on Ancient Philosophy and Religion

May 3rd 2019, Aarhus University

10:30-10:45 Opening of the seminar Anders Klostergaard Petersen

10:45-12:00 Glenn Most “Reflections on Interpreting Ancient Philosophy through the Lens of Religion.”

12:00-12:50 Lunch

13:00-14:00 David Sedley “Theological Dualism and the Origins of Greek Philosophy.”

14:00-15:00 Lars Albinus “Why Poetry Is more Philosophical, and Philosophy more Mythical, than History.”

15:00-15:30 Coffee break

15:30-16:30 Anders Klostergaard Petersen “Reading Plato through a Wagnerian Lens – How Should We Understand and Formulate the Relationship between the Emergence of Ancient Philosophy and Classical Religious Discourse? A Rejoinder to Habermas.”

16:30-16:45 Closing of the seminar. Publication plans.

17:30-18:15 Aperitif at Nørregade no. 38

18:30 Dinner at Früd No. 16