

PROVENANCE & RECYCLING.

ON THE LIFE HISTORY OF PREHISTORIC METALWORK.

27.04.2017 13.00-17.00 Foredragssalen (4206-139)
Organised by Heide Wrobel Nørgaard

13.00 - Welcome

Heide Wrobel Nørgaard, postdoc Dept. of Archaeology, Helle Vandkilde, Professor Dept. of Archaeology

13.15-14.15

Recycling and Reuse of metal in Bronze Age Europe –archaeometallurgical methods to determine recycling in material culture - Ernst Pernicka, Professor University Heidelberg/ Curt-Engelhorn-Zentrum Archäometrie

14.15-14.45

Pile, Scandinavia & Europe: - On the track of copper origins, use and circulation around 2000 BCE -
Helle Vandkilde, Professor Dept. of Archaeology

Coffee break

15.00-15.30

The early Scandinavian metal –first results of a big data study on the provenance of the Scandinavian metal 2000-1500 BC - Heide Wrobel Nørgaard, postdoc Dept. of Archaeology, Helle Vandkilde and Ernst Pernicka

15.30-16.00

Rome's rise to power: analysis of silver coinage from the Western Mediterranean c.480 – 100 BCE - Thomas Birch, assistant Professor UrbNet, Katrin Westner, Heidi E. Höfer, H.-Michael Seitz, Fleur Kemmers, Sabine Klein

16.00-16.30

Vana Orfanou, postdoc Dept. of Geoscience

Tradition and change in copper-based metallurgical practices in early Greece, 10th to 7th centuries BC